Favorites with the CAC Wind Ensemble

Thurs, April 19, 2018 at 7 pm | FREE
Signal Peak Campus, Pence Center

Over the past 100 years of original concert band music, several classics have risen to the top of the list. Professor Moore has selected some of his favorite classic compositions for the Central Arizona Community Wind Ensemble to perform. Some of the selections will be "Of Sailors and Whales", "Elsa's Procession To The Cathedral" and "Them Basses."

The concert will begin with guest artists, Poston Butte High School Band from the San Tan Valley. They are under the leadership of Mr. John Woode.

The Central Arizona Community Wind Ensemble consists of approximately 60 members ranging in age from 16-85 years old. Pinal County communities represented with membership include: Arizona City, Casa Grande, Coolidge, Eloy, Florence, Maricopa and the San Tan Valley. Be sure to come early & enjoy the Annual Student Art Show in the lobby.

Happy Holidays with the Duttons

Wed, Dec. 13, 2017 at 7 pm | $22 Signal Peak Campus, Pence Center

This show combines the high-energy of the Branson, MO family's year-long show - a blend of musical genres from classical to bluegrass to pop and more - with heartwarming holiday songs that will inspire and cheer audiences. All members of this talented family perform, from Grandma and Grandpa, Sheila and Dean, to the youngest grandchildren. The Duttons were Top 10 finishers on America's Got Talent, and have been awarded TripAdvisor's Certificate of Excellence for consistently great reviews by audience members who visit their theater in Branson. "So much talent on one stage from the same family is amazing," says one recent review. "Fabulous show... VERY ENTERTAINING... Everyone should see this." raves another. Don't miss it!

Peter, Paul, & Mary Remembered

Sat, Jan. 13, 2018 at 3 pm | $22 Signal Peak Campus, Pence Center

Rekindling fond memories when we "came of age," Peter, Paul and Mary Remembered guide the audience through those nostalgic times in their presentation of these beloved musicians and their songs of the 60s. Sharron, Dave and Marty perform these songs to bring an era of our country's history to life: Civil Rights Marches, the Vietnam War and Women's Rights, to name a few. Audiences sing along with all the joy and sadness indicative of that period. At the end of the concert, these three musicians go into the audience to share handshakes and hugs, laughter and tears, and some genuinely heartfelt memories.

Cirque Shanghai

Wed, Jan. 24, 2018 at 7 pm | $22 Signal Peak Campus, Pence Center

The “Acrobats of China” bring an amazing new troupe of daring acrobats to the Pence stage. Known for their colorful costuming and daring feats, as well as their breathtaking renditions of classic Chinese dance and human performance art, this troupe is one of the most skilled and highly awarded Chinese acrobatic troupes. This show will feature twenty stunning acrobats who have performed around the world. Enjoy award-winning favorites like Human Strength & Beauty, Plates Spinning, Juggling, Diabolo, Chair Stack, Butterfly Lovers, Spinning Girls, and more.

Riders in the Sky

Tip of the Stetson to Roy Rogers

Fri, Feb. 16, 2018 at 7 pm | $22 Signal Peak Campus, Pence Center

Join Riders in the Sky in a thrilling ride to yesteryear as they salute iconic western movie, music and TV star, Roy Rogers. This show features audience favorites such as “Don’t Fence Me In”, “Pecos Bill” and “Happy Trails” and includes some biographical fun facts about Roy’s life from his humble beginnings to one of Hollywood’s most beloved stars, and his influence on a generation of western entertainers. Rider Too Slim says “This show will trigger (sorry about that) a lot of memories for folks our age and introduce a new generation to a wonderful artist who deserves to be celebrated. See you there, saddlepals!”

Regardless of religion, race, or creed; whether one is rich or poor, educated or not, his story has the ability to break even the hardest of hearts.

What's Love Got To Do With It: The State of Love in American Society

Thurs, Oct. 5, 2017 at 7pm | FREE
Signal Peak Campus, Pence Center

What role does love have to play in an increasingly divided American society? What does "love" have to say about the growing incivility in America? Central Arizona College professors and local community representatives will participate in a friendly debate that will look at how the word love is used and viewed from different perspectives.

"The goal of the debate is to create intellectual interaction and dialogue between faculty, students and the entire CAC community," states Dr. Derrick L. Span, Professor of Sociology. What's Love Got to do with it? You tell us when they poll the audience for their opinion at the end.
