Before he built the bridge in St. Louis, James B. Eads built seven ironclads in 100 days. He delivered them in January 1862 just in time to play an important part in U.S. Grantís campaign to capture Forts Henry and Donelson. The unknown Brigadier General became nationally known when he captured the two forts. Eads built seven more ironclads and registered eight patents including a steam-driven turret that fired every 45 seconds. His gunboats helped win many important victories including the capture of Clarksville, Nashville, Island No. 10, Fort Pillow, and Vicksburg. Eads and Grant became "warm friends."

Sunni/Shi'a Divide

Though the subject is abundantly more complex than the space of two hours can unravel, please join us to dampen our feet to the intricacies of the Sunni/Shi'a divide. Critical to our understanding of the Muslim world, classifying these two groups will require an examination of politics, geography, history, religion and culture. We'll explore the schism within Islam that created these groups, sources of and exceptions to their mutual hostility, the structural specifics of each and the impact of their rift on modern international relations. Our instructor will venture to explain the rules governing the use of the term "Shi'a" vs. that of "Shi'ite." Unveiling this essential component of intra-Islamic affairs will focus the lens through which we read a newspaper, study the problems of individual states and understand one of the root causes of conflict in the modern Middle East.

Forgiveness

Love can heal the world and forgiveness is the catalyst to make it happen. When anyone gives up all grievances, the path is open to find real peace and happiness. In this class, we will discuss inspirational stories of the miracles of personal healing that radical forgiveness can produce and why forgiveness is so important for our own well-being, as well as for others. The steps of actually performing forgiveness will be presented and discussed. Following these steps outside the classroom can release grievances and heal relationships. This presentation of forgiveness is psychologically based and is not focused on any particular religious view of forgiveness, so no religious or faith-based view of forgiveness is needed to understand and practice it.
