Summer 2017

Spring will soon be in our rearview mirror, as the even warmer days of summer approach. While the season ushers in a hectic time of year at PRCS, with camps of every variety taking place in every corner of the county, I can't help but reflect on the good old-fashioned simplicity of summer. We can all benefit by slowing down long enough to soak up the sun's rays, drop a fishing line from a pier, or sip an ice-cold lemonade!

Sometimes keeping it simple is the best approach, whether at home or at work. Focusing on what can seem like small things often makes the biggest difference. At PRCS, we have the privilege of providing an array of services to Loudoun's residents. Our staff spends hours researching, planning, creating and delivering programs and events to meet the diverse needs of a growing community. With a desire to meet others' needs comes pressure and expectations. Couple that with the changing demands and expectations in our personal lives, and the simple pleasures often get overshadowed.

Just as summer reminds us to take pleasure in simple things, staff and citizens can benefit by sometimes taking a simple approach, while still accomplishing major goals. Whether we're attempting to impact the life of child in preschool, provide assistance to a senior, help a middle-school camper develop leadership qualities, or support a loved one, we can make a significant impact with the smallest of gestures. As leaders in parks and recreation, we focus largely on vision, goals and strategies - all necessary to our success. But it is the little things that help us to build relationships, make people feel valued and become true leaders. As we slow our pace during these "lazy, hazy days of summer," let's all take the time to focus on the little things, because the rewards are big!

Sincerely,

Steve Torpy

Advisory Commission on Youth (ACOY)

The Advisory Commission on Youth comprises members appointed by the Board of Supervisors, along with representatives from community agencies and student liaisons from public and private high schools. HAVRE DE GRACE: TIME & TIDE -MARYLAND

Havre de Grace is an historic waterfront town sitting right on the banks of the wide Susquehanna River. During the Revolutionary War General Lafayette visited this small hamlet several times. De Grace Maritime Museum where we will learn about the War of 1812 and Maryland's maritime history. Next travel down to the water and visit the Susquehanna Museum at the Lock House, the authenticity of this site is unusual and makes it a very special visit.
