INTRODUCTION

Bob LawrenceCommunity Education and Recreation Director

It is exciting when we finish pulling together all of the learning, recreation, and enrichment opportunities for each of our program guides and this one is no exception. Our staff has been working hard to ensure a variety of classes and activities throughout the summer months.

As a parent, I know that it is an important planning tool as I think about how to engage my own kids over the summer month. My daughters, Eliana and Brita, love to flip through the guide and make plans for all of the fun things they would like to do over the summer. I hope that kids and parents find the new at a glance calendar helpful in planning activities.

While many of our summer activities are geared toward youth, we try to offer opportunities for all age levels and interests. Adults and families are invited to join us on our bus trips and we have other various adult classes scheduled. If you don't see what you are looking for, please let me know. We are always trying to add new opportunities and meet emerging needs in the community.

As always, feel free to stop into our office, give me a call, or email bob_lawrence@litchfield.k12.mn.us with any thoughts, questions, concerns, or ideas on how Community Education can best serve you.
