Wednesday Winter Walks

Lapping the Landmarks

An absolute "must-do" for visitors, new residents and longtime citizens who want a new perspective on our fair city! We'll cruise by Campau Square, named after the founding father of Grand Rapids, on our way to explore some of the city's "first and finest" including historic sites, museums, colleges, Indian mounds, hotels, bridges, churches, the Medical Mile, the Grand River and more...all neatly contained in a downtown loop. Simply, fascinating!

Wed 1/15 10 a.m. Meet in the lobby of the JW Marriott.
$15 Early Bird Fee / $25 Regular Fee

Art Dart

See why Grand Rapids is hailed as one of America's most creative cities! We'll move through the city center in hunt of significant artworks, including the 42-ton Alexander Calder sculpture that symbolizes the city's innovative spirit. Also on the tour: two art museums, an art & design school and the headquarters of ArtPrize, a revolutionary art competition ranked as one of the world's top five festivals by Time Magazine. You'll find the activity physically and artistically invigorating.

Wed 2/12 10 a.m. Meet in the lobby of the JW Marriott.
$15 Early Bird Fee / $25 Regular Fee

Grand Bridges

The city of Grand Rapids was born alongside a one mile stretch of spectacular rapids on our Grand River, the Owashtanong. The pure, rushing waterway was absolutely integral to GR's explosive growth in the 19th century. Today, eight bridges, not counting highway bridges, carry vehicle traffic between the Wealthy Street Bridge and the North Park Bridge. Enjoy criss-crossing some of these historic spans as we weave our way from south to north and back again on a section of the longest river in the state of Michigan. Breathtaking for its beauty and exercise, this route is a must-experience for urban bridge and river aficionados. Along the way, catch nostalgic glimpses of times gone by - the river of history - and appreciate its irrepressible flow into the future.

Wed 3/18 10 a.m. Meet in the lobby of the JW Marriott.
$15 Early Bird Fee / $25 Regular Fee

Pickleball

Come join us for an afternoon of Pickleball. Bring your own racquet and pickleballs.

Tues 1/14 12:30 - 2:30 p.m.
Fri 2/14 12:30 - 2:30 p.m.
Fri 3/6 12:30 - 2:30 p.m.

Battleship Missouri & Other Amazing Ships & Planes

Take a tour of the Mighty Mo, the USS Missouri. This Iowa-class battleship is known for valiant service in three wars and as the site where the Japanese surrendered, ending WWII. Also visit the Airliner 10, the world's largest aircraft which looks like an old-fashioned (albeit huge) airship. It combines lighter-than-air technology with modern aeronautical technology to form an innovative kind of aircraft that can fly for up to 5 days at a time and has a much lower carbon footprint than other types of air transport. Finally, we'll see the USS Silversides submarine, the most successful surviving American submarine from WWII. Learn about how submariners lived, worked, and survived on one of the most successful submarines in the Pacific Fleet, credited with sinking 23 ships.
