Activity Nights

The Middle School Activity Nights are an opportunity for Olympia area middle school students to get together for a fun and safe night of activities. Each event is $5 (payable at the door) and runs from 6:30-8:30pm (unless otherwise noted). Each event is open to students from the hosting school (unless otherwise noted). No registration required, simply show up. Homeschool and private school students wishing to attend should contact Luke Burns at 360.570.5857.

Each event has a number of activities, including fun themes, karaoke, DJ and dancing, gym games, competitions and prizes. The themes are determined by students in partnership with Olympia Parks, Arts and Recreation. Themes are typically listed two weeks prior to the event date. If you are a parent/guardian/family member of a middle school student in the Olympia area, we encourage you to volunteer. Volunteering at these events is a great way to meet other parents as well as school administrators. For more information, please see our website at: www.olympiawa.gov/activitynights

Spring Equinox Personal Mandala

Ages: 16 and up

The word "mandala" is a Sanskrit word that is over 2300 years old translated as "circle" or "sacred center." Circular patterns have been used throughout time in many cultures, including the Tibetan and Native American, as tools for centering and healing. In this workshop we will explore the history of mandala patterns and you will create your own personal mandala, using oil pastel, colored pencil and collage. Using principles of geometry and symmetry present in nature, along with your own personal creativity, you will come away with new knowledge of yourself. This should be a time to let go, play with color and design, and to have fun! Most supplies included in class fee. Suggested embellishment list will print on registration receipt. Shibori

Shibori

Ages: 16 and up

Shibori is a Japanese dyeing technique that typically involves folding, twisting or bunching cloth and binding it, then dyeing it in indigo. Whatever is used to bind the fabric will resist the dye, resulting in areas of the cloth that take the distinctive blue dye in patterns created by the resistance, and other areas of the cloth that remain white. The technique used in shibori depends not only on the desired pattern, but the characteristics of the cloth being dyed. All supplies included in class fee. Instructor: Ellen Miffitt

Recreation for Special Populations

The Olympia Parks, Arts & Recreation Department joins Thurston County Recreation Services in providing opportunities for learning and growth through the experience of recreation and leisure activities. Programs include bingo, daytrips, dances, movies and pizza, sports, fitness and art. For more information, call Thurston County Recreation Services at 360.867.2588 or visit www.thurston-parks.org.

Individuals with different abilities are encouraged to participate in Olympia Parks, Arts & Recreation Department programs. Please contact our department to discuss how we might best serve your needs.

The Olympia Center

Walk through our doors and you'll see youth laughing, adults learning and seniors dancing. Whether you want to rent a room, pursue continued education or engage in a family activity, you'll discover that you are part of a unique and special place.

Just across from Percival Landing, The Olympia Center is centrally located and beautifully situated near Budd Inlet. We offer a friendly and casual atmosphere with programs and spaces to meet your needs. The Olympia Center offers the choice of two certified kitchens, a large event room with stage, eight meeting rooms equipped with tables and chairs, a regulation gymnasium and dedicated parking. Available amenities include A/V equipment, easel/whiteboards, podiums and coffee service if desired.

In addition to recreation classes and private rentals, The Olympia Center is home to many pieces of public art including the "Olympia Salmon Run" by various artists and "Macchia" by Dale Chihuly. So much to see and do, you will have to discover it for yourself.

Refunds & Cancellations

1. Satisfaction guaranteed! If you are not satisfied with your class, we will refund the full amount if you call before the class meets a second time. If two classes have passed, we will pro-rate your refund. Refunds are not issued after the third class meeting.
2. Trip and camp refunds (less $5 administration fee) will be issued only with notification received at least five business days prior to the trip/camp.
3. Sports leagues refunds (less $5 administration fee) will be issued only if requested prior to creation of league schedule.
4. Full class refunds (less $5 administration fee) are gladly made if requested 24 hours prior to the first class.
5. Classes that fail to meet minimum enrollment may be canceled. If a class is canceled because of low enrollment, you will be refunded in full. Olympia Parks, Arts & Recreation will make every effort to give 48 hours advance notice of cancellations.

ADA Accommodations

The City of Olympia does not discriminate against individuals with disabilities in City services, programs, or activities. The City provides reasonable accommodations to the public with disabilities. We invite you to contact the Parks, Arts and Recreation Department two (2) weeks in advance of the date a program begins or forty-eight (48) hours before Parks and Recreation meetings to discuss any special accommodations which may be necessary.

Scholarships

Scholarships may be available for qualifying Olympia residents to participate in programs through the Fun Fund. The Fun Fund is driven solely by donations, and therefore funds are limited and occasionally unavailable. For more information, please call our customer service team at 360.753.8380.

Olympia School District

Many of our activities are made possible because of cooperative use of school district facilities. We extend our thanks to Olympia School District #111 School Board and Staff.

Disclaimer

Classes and workshops are designed to be useful and informative. We do not endorse any products or services that are presented during the course of the class and/or activity. It is the individual's responsibility to make informed decisions regarding these issues.

The Small Print

1. Registration is on a FIRST COME, FIRST SERVED basis. Minimum and maximum enrollment guidelines are used for each program.
2. Fees must be paid at the time of registration. Make checks payable to City of Olympia.
3. We offer scheduled payment plans for a limited number of classes. Scheduled payments require a credit card.
4. If a class is full, please ask to be put on the wait list.
5. Most class fees include supplies. When additional supplies are required, lists are available at registration or at the first class.
6. Classes with monthly fees are not pro-rated.
7. If a fee is a hardship, call about our confidential scholarship program "Fun Fund" for City of Olympia residents within the Olympia School District boundaries.
8. All classes are held at The Olympia Center, 222 Columbia St. NW, unless otherwise indicated.

PARKS • ARTS • RECREATION

Mission

We provide opportunities for meaningful life experiences through extraordinary parks, arts and recreation.

Vision

To make a difference by enriching Olympia's quality of life, being good environmental stewards, strengthening community connection, creating neighborhood identity, fostering artistic expression and beautifying our city. In short, to touch the life of every Olympian in a positive way.

Olympia City Council

Olympia's seven-member City Council sets policy, often by adopting codes (laws), plans, resolutions and standards. The City Council, in turn, hires the City Manager, Steve Hall, to administer the City's day-to-day business and provide policy advice to the Council.

Members include: Cheryl Selby, Mayor; Nathaniel Jones, Mayor Pro Tem; Jessica Bateman, Jim Cooper, Clark Gilman, Julie Hankins, and Jeannine Roe.

Olympia Parks and Recreation Advisory Committee

The purpose of the Parks & Recreation Advisory Committee (PRAC) is to make recommendations to the City Council regarding parks and recreation plans, policies, programs and projects.

The Parks & Recreation Advisory Committee is an advisory board, appointed by the Olympia City Council. Members serve three-year terms.

Members include: Jim Nieland, Chair; Alicia Seegers Martinelli, Vice Chair; Kim Bauer, Barbara Benson, Robert Dengel, Candace Jacobs, Brock Milliern, Maria Ruth and Brian Tomlinson.

Olympia Arts Commission

The mission of the Olympia Arts Commission is to help enrich the lives of the people of this region by making visual, performing and literary arts vital elements in the life of our community.

The Olympia Arts Commission is an advisory board, appointed by the Olympia City Council. Members serve three-year terms.

Members include: Marygrace Jennings, Chair; Stacy Hicks, Vice Chair; Susan Aurand, Britta Echtele, Diana Fairbanks, Ron Hinton, Kathy Murray, Katie Nelson and Rick Perry.
