Protecting children is the responsibility of us all. Anybody who suspects that a child is being hurt, has the right to report that suspicion. But, certain professionals, due to their contact or work with children, have special responsibilities. These people are called mandated reporters and are required by law to report suspected child abuse. Mandated reporters are of critical importance in the child abuse prevention effort. This training identifies the role and responsibility bystanders and care providers play in the prevention, protection and intervention of child abuse.

The conscious mind is the analytical and rational part of the mind. The subconscious mind is responsible for creativity, perception, intuition, habits, and emotions. The conscious mind is our mental recorder and calculator. Our subconscious mind generates the creative, artistic, and intuitive characteristics that we possess. We live in a "Left Brain" society where emphasis is placed on developing analytical skills. Just like exercising a muscle, that which we exercise will grow stronger. Physical Conditioning Theory: Fact from Fiction

This class will focus on an in-depth analysis of the process of physical conditioning and the products of improved fitness and application to activities of daily living. We will take a broad-based approach to analyzing these concepts and include information for all segments of society, and cover information that may be used in the conditioning of the average person or an elite athlete. Our first step will be to take a brief look at where our society is in terms of fitness, health, and participation in physical activity. We will then analyze the benefits (physically, emotionally, and economically) brought about by being regularly active. This will be followed by an analysis of how the body responds and adapts to physical stress. Paul J. Minitier

SmartShield System (Of Personal Protection)

KNOWLEDGE IS POWER! Learn how to keep yourself and your loved ones safe in our unsettled world one day of training could save your life! We live in an increasingly dangerous world. It seems that law enforcement usually arrives after the fact and is therefore incapable of protecting us the vast majority of the time. Virtually every victim of violent crime was caught unprepared and off guard. We leave our homes for work or recreation; we send our children to school and off to college assuming that someone will be looking out for their safety. That attitude can and has often led to tragedy. In truth... no one is really looking out for you or your children. Personal responsibility and preparedness on each individual's part is essential in our increasingly dangerous world. Under the direction of Philip Holder, Ph.D.

America Before Columbus

Pre-Columbian peoples were not intermittently settled in an unspoiled wilderness; rather, there were vast numbers who actively shaped and influenced the geography around them. The Aztec enjoyed running water and impeccably clean streets. Mesoamerican cultures grew corn in a focused breeding process that has been called man's first feat of genetic engineering. Native peoples were not living lightly on the land but were manipulating and managing their world in many ways. We will examine the Maya, Aztec, Inka and many other pre Columbian cultures through interactive talks, PowerPoint presentations, and artifacts. Matthew Bielecki, B.S., B.A.
