Better Photography for Realtors

NEW! As a realtor you know how competitive the market can be - it's more important than ever to make sure your listings stand out from the crowd. The best way to do so is to ditch the smartphone, pick up an SLR camera and learn how to take professional quality photographs. A recent study found that homes represented with professional quality photographs were viewed longer online and sold for significantly more than those with lower quality images. Professional photographer Bob Lockwood leads this hands-on workshop on photographic techniques for realtors including effective composition and image enhancement using Adobe Photoshop. Note: Must bring an SLR (Single Lens Reflex) camera to class. Class will meet on campus and at select off-campus locations. CLASS FEE: $59

 Meets between: July 12-Aug. 2

Fiction Writing Workshop

The best fiction workshops offer a strong sense of community for writers of all abilities. Finding support in the company of other writers strikes a pleasant counterpoint to the often romanticized solitary struggle of fiction writing. Through brief exercises and readings, you'll explore the essential techniques and demystify the process of inventing stories. Lastly, you'll workshop your own fiction - sharing in roundtable format and learning through experience, written critiques, and thoughtful discussion of each others' work. CLASS FEE: $59

PHOTOGRAPHY TECHNIQUES EVERY REALTOR SHOULD KNOW!

As a realtor you know how competitive the market can be - it's more important than ever to make sure your listings stand out from the crowd.

A recent study found that homes represented with professional quality photographs were viewed longer online and sold for significantly more than those with lower quality images.

You can pay a professional photographer hundreds of dollars to take photographs for you. Or, you can sell more properties and make more money on each property by learning how to take your own professional quality photographs.

Professional photographer Bob Lockwood leads Better Photography for Realtors - a hands-on workshop on the techniques every realtor needs to know to increase sales. You'll learn:

- Tips for effective composition.
- The settings on your camera and how to use them.
- How to enhance images enhancement using Adobe Photoshop.
- Why you should use virtual tours and other underutilized techniques.

See page 3 for more on Better Photography for Realtors and sign up today. Enrollment is limited.
